Intrigue!

Gossip!

This 80-minute one-act play with music and audience interaction offers an exciting ride back in time where you'll hear scintillating stories and titillating tidbits from notables in their own words.

Passion!

Secrets!

Imagine a world before the internet, smart phones, Facebook, Skype, Twitter, and Selfies. What did people do? How did they survive? How did they communicate? They wrote lengthy letters (tons of them), kept detail-filled diaries, and penned juicy memoirs. Memoirs & Boudoirs presents audiences, through the words of these naughty notables themselves, with answers to questions like:

- What was Henri VIII like when he was young, slim and in love?
- How many lovers did Catherine the Great really have? 10? 20? 2000?
- Why did Emperor Napoleon order Empress Josephine not to bathe?
- Who had a better claim to the throne of England, Mary, Queen of Scots, or Elizabeth I of England?
